

WESTERN EXTRUSIONS

You recently requested a statement regarding Western Extrusions Corporation's use of Conflict Minerals within its production process, as the term Conflict Minerals is defined in Section 1502 of the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act.

Western Extrusions does not consume or use Conflict Minerals in producing its products. The production process at Western Extrusions only consumes 1xxx and 6xxx series aluminum alloys. Consistent with the 1xxx and 6xxx series aluminum alloy guidelines, as recognized by the Aluminum Association, these aluminum alloys do not contain Conflict Minerals.

Sincerely,

Michael Tierney
Metallurgist
